Finish: Bright, clean, with balanced minerality

The Phipps Family Cellars 2013 Sauvignon Blanc is made like a great white Bordeaux wine but in a classic California style. This Sauvignon Blanc, while cold-fermented in 100% stainless steel barrels and tanks, is stirred on the lees for one year to create the rich and creamy mouth feel.

The beautiful Russian River Valley enjoys warm to hot days, with cool fog rolling in each morning and evening from the nearby Pacific Ocean, creating the ideal cool-climate environment for high acidity and bursts of fruit flavor in a Sauvignon Blanc. While aromas of citrus linger on the nose, your palate will delight in the gracious tang of grapefruit. Hints of stone fruit passion fruit complete the smooth, clean finish, leaving you refreshed and ready for the next sip of this friendly wine.
