WINEMAKER NOTES

The 2006 "Treborce Vineyard" Zinfandel marks Phipps Family Cellars' first vineyard designated wine ever. It is also the first 100% varietal Zinfandel that we have made.

The Treborce Vineyard is perched high atop the eastern hillside in Dry Creek Valley. This vineyard produces "Classic Zinfandel" with a distinct core of blackberry, spicy black pepper, and dark chocolate. This Zinfandel is further characterized by Spanish cherries, dark raspberry, and boysenberry fruit that mingle with vanilla, anise, cinnamon, toasty oak, and allspice.

WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

A beautiful Zinfandel that shows the elegant balance of a fine Cabernet Sauvignon, but with Zin's exuberant personality. Powerful in wild blackberry, black raspberry and mulberry fruit, the wine also exhibits cola, mocha and chamomile notes liberally accented with crushed black pepper, nutmeg and cinnamon spice. Finishes complex, long and absolutely dry. Really defines Dry Creek Zin at its best.
