The 2013 Napa Valley Chardonnay is bright, vibrant gold in color, with aromas of ripe apple, mandarin, Asian pear, nutmeg, vanilla bean, and fresh mineral notes. The wine’s soft entry leads to a medium bodied mid-palate, with generous volume and medium acidity. Flavors of apple tart, ripe pear, and citrus notes, with subtle oak toast and spice play nicely together, ending with a clean, medium length finish.

If you are looking for a bona-fide, everyday upscale Napa Valley Chardonnay, this 2013 California Wine Company Chardonnay is the wine for you. Sourced from vineyards in the Wild Horse Valley AVA, this wine sails onto the palate with ripe core fruit, alluring creaminess and a smooth and firm palate presence.
